

Jonathan Zuck

Jonathan is a technologist, visual artist and educator. As the Executive Director of the Innovators Network Foundation (INF), Jonathan leads research into the future of work and facilitates pilot projects designed to expand the entrepreneur class around the world.

15 years of software development and 19 years of technology advocacy give Jonathan a unique perspective on the crisis of global unemployment. When not working on behalf of entrepreneurs, Jonathan is an award winning photographer and filmmaker with clients around the world.