

Varsha Sewlal

Varsha Sewlal is an admitted attorney with 22 years of work experience of which 16 years were spent within the public sphere. She spent 5 years in private practice and then joined the Office of the Public Protector for a period of 7 years and nine months investigating maladministration, undue delay, abuse of power, corruption, unlawful enrichment, promotion of just administrative action in government departments and state institutions.

Varsha then joined the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development in 2009 as Master of the Durban High Court. She was appointed as Project Leader/ Acting Chief Director Research dealing with the Transformation of State Legal Services in June 2015 till September 2016. Varsha has taken up the post of Master of the Pretoria High Court in July 2016.

QUALIFICATIONS

B.SOC.SCI (UKZN)

LLB(UKZN)

LLM(Commercial Law) (Unisa)

Certificate in Intellectual Property Law (WIPO (Geneva)-UNISA)

Leadership Development Programme for Enhanced Public Service Delivery) (Administrative Staff College of India Bella Vista : Hyderabad

Certificate in Conflict Resolution, Negotiation and Mediation, Department of International Relations and Cooperation.

Doctoral Candidate LLD,(Unisa)Information Communication Technology Law

Admitted as an Attorney in the High Court of South Africa