

Anne-Marie Joly-Bachollet

I am the representative of an ALS named E-Senior, based in France, therefor EURALO member since June 2009. The organization take care of various European projects and organize a lot of training to help senior people to learn about Internet and different services targeted for them. It is mainly organize in Paris region but since I am retired in Burgundy we have trained more than 30 first time senior Internet users in my village.

I am involved in the town council as deputy mayor. I am also deputy chair in the social center covering 12 villages and we deliver the "senior connected" program.

I am very concern and aware about the need of Internet end-users.

I participated in various ICANN and EURALO meetings or conference calls since the ICANN meeting organized in Paris in June 2008.

I am currently involved in the EURALO (and ALAC) ALS Outreach and Engagement Working Group.

I will be participating to NASIG and to ATLAS III.
