

Laura Margolis

Born in Montevideo, Uruguay.

More than 20 years of experience in the Internet Industry and Computer Technology.

Having held technical and commercial positions in companies such as Netgate, PSI Net and AT&T, she has vast experience in Software and Website Development, e-commerce, Digital Marketing, Telecommunications, Digital education and Internet Of Things.

Since 2009 she is the Senior Director of Intersys Uruguay, a company that specializes in providing services related to domain registrations in Uruguay, Latin America, the United States and Europe.

Currently in charge of Portfolio Management of local and foreign client domain names, working with well known local and international companies.

Since October 2018, ccNSO Councilor, elected by ICANN NomCom. Group member of ICANN LAC Strategy for 2018-2020.

Member of the women's DNS Women Community of ICANN, IT Women of LACNIC, and Board member of the Internet Society Uruguayan 's Chapter (ISOC Uruguay). Member of the local IGF Organizing Committee.

Represented Uruguay in the South School of Internet Governance at OAS Headquarters in Washington, DC.

Participates in ICANN meetings, Internet Governance Forums, as well as other conferences related to the industry of Internet Domains and Technology.